Dear Believer:

Greetings in the name of the Almighty, Everlasting, Most High God who has marked May 2006 as a month of citywide prayer opportunities. 1) It starts off with the National Day of Prayer the 4th of May. The theme this year, America, Honor God is taken from 1 Samuel 2:30. There will be a Bible Reading Marathon at the Nueces County Courthouse Lipan entrance from 12 Noon to 12:30. Bring your Bible and help read on May 4. Also, Annaville Baptist Church will have an observance. Contact the church for details (241-9557). 2) Prayer grows in May with the Prayer Conference with Eddie and Alice Smith on May 12th – 13th. For registration / information go to fridaynightcc.org or email 4scotty@msn.com. 3) Continuing the focus on prayer the Mayor's Leadership Prayer Breakfast will be May 18th. Contact the Christian Business Association for information (851-1605).

We believe the Lord has given the following specific prayer points for May:

- 1. Pray for church and secular leadership to grasp what it means to catch the vision for transformation; what it is; that it is possible; and the desire for it to take root in this city.
- 2. Pray for the Lord to guard relationships between leaders and leaders and also between leaders and followers to prevent miscommunication. The Lord has had us focus on listening to Him. As we practice and learn to do this well we will grow in hearing each other.
- 3. Pray that the Lord reveal the ways that we flirt with darkness and thereby open ourselves up to attacks of the enemy.
- 4. Pray that the Lord bring into place ways and opportunities for the "Word of the Lord" to be a part of the public records and that the Lord shows His might through public power encounters.
- 5. Pray that people recognize and receive the resources of God that are ours in Christ.
